COMMUNITY SAVINGS CREDIT UNION DRAFT RULES

1. Definitions

1.1 In these Rules:

1. “BCBCA” means the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and regulations made pursuant thereto;
2. “Credit Union Incorporation Act” means the Credit Union Incorporation Act of British Columbia from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and regulations made pursuant thereto;
3. “Credit Union” means Community Savings Credit Union;
4. “Directors” means the Directors of the Credit Union elected or appointed in accordance with the rules of the Credit Union;
5. “Financial Institutions Act” means the Financial Institutions Act of British Columbia from time to time in force and all amendments thereto and regulations made pursuant thereto;
6. “Acts” means the BCBCA, the Credit Union Incorporation Act and the Financial Institutions Act; and
7. “member in good standing” means a member of the Credit Union who is: not in default of any provision of these Rules; is not more than sixty (60) days delinquent in any obligation to the Credit Union; and in respect of whom no loss provision has been made in the books of the Credit Union.

2. Membership

- 2.1 Every application for membership shall be made in writing and may be delivered to the Credit Union either by personal delivery, mail, telefax or other forms of electronic delivery acceptable to the Credit Union. The application for membership shall be valid only when the Credit Union has received payment in full of the purchase price of the number of membership shares of the Credit Union required to be held as a condition of membership pursuant to these Rules.
- 2.2 A member may withdraw from membership, and membership of any person may be terminated in accordance with the Credit Union Incorporation Act.
- 2.3 Subject to the provisions of the Credit Union Incorporation Act that specify the minimum number of membership shares for which a member must subscribe and pay, the Directors may establish policies to waive or delay purchase, payment, redemption and ownership in whole or in part of membership shares as required by these Rules.

3. Shares and Deposits

- 3.1 The shares of the Credit Union shall be divided into six (6) classes of shares, designated as membership shares, Class A investment shares, Class B investment shares, Class C investment shares, Class D investment shares, and Class E investment shares. The Class A investment shares, Class B investment shares, Class C investment shares, Class D investment shares, and Class E investment shares are collectively referred to as the “investment shares”. All of the shares together are referred to as the “shares”.
- 3.2 All shares shall have a par value of $1.00 each.
- 3.3 Monies invested in shares, and dividends thereon, shall not be guaranteed by the fund administered by the Credit Union Deposit Insurance Corporation of British Columbia.
- 3.4 Shares are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment.
- 3.5 Membership shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:
- (a) ownership, assignment, transfer and issue of membership shares is limited as set out in the Credit Union Incorporation Act;
 - (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, the Credit Union shall redeem the membership shares held by a member if
 - (i) the member is an individual and dies, subject to Rule 3.7 and subject to any contrary instruction of the personal representative of the deceased member to transfer the shares to a person entitled to hold the same pursuant to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and these Rules,
 - (ii) the member is an incorporated company and is dissolved or wound up,
 - (iii) the Credit Union terminates the membership of the member,
 - (iv) the member withdraws from membership in the Credit Union,
 - (v) the member is a partnership which dissolves,
 - (vi) the member, in any other case, ceases to be a legal entity according to the statute by or pursuant to which it was created;
 - (c) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, the Credit Union may redeem the membership shares held by a member on such terms and conditions and at such times as the Directors, in their discretion, resolve. If some, but not all of the membership shares are to be redeemed, the Directors may decide the manner in which the membership shares to be redeemed are selected; and

- (d) any redemption or purchase of membership shares shall be at par value plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon.

3.5A The Class A investment shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:

- (a) Class A investment shares will be issued at an amount equal to their par value and are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the Class A investment shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment;
- (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, a Class A investment share shall not generally carry the right to attend or vote at any meeting of members of the Credit Union. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no change may be made to the rights and restrictions attached to the Class A investment shares without the approval, by way of a separate special resolution, of holders of outstanding Class A investment shares in addition to any other approvals required under applicable law;
- (c) the Directors may, at any time, declare dividends on the outstanding Class A investment shares. For greater certainty, the Directors are not obligated to declare or pay dividends on the Class A investment shares in any fiscal year and there is no minimum amount of such dividends in any fiscal year;
- (d) in any fiscal year, no dividends or other distributions (other than redemptions of membership shares as contemplated under these rules) may be made on the membership shares until such time as the Credit Union has declared and paid dividends on the outstanding Class A investment shares in an aggregate amount equal to a percentage (which will be established by the directors at the time of issuance of the first Class A investment shares) of the aggregate amount of paid up capital on all Class A investment shares then outstanding;
- (e) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Credit Union may redeem some or all of the Class A investment shares then outstanding in their discretion. If some, but not all, of the Class A investment shares are to be redeemed, the directors may decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed are selected. Any redemption or purchase of Class A investment shares shall be at a price per Class A investment share equal to the initial purchase price of such shares plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Class A investment shares may be redeemed hereunder until such shares have been issued and outstanding for at least five (5) years; and
- (f) under no circumstances will any holder of Class A investment shares have the right to require the Credit Union to redeem or purchase any such Class A investment shares.

3.5B The Class B investment shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:

- (a) Class B investment shares will be issued at an amount equal to their par value and are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the Class B investment shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment;
- (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, a Class B investment share shall not generally carry the right to attend or vote at any meeting of members of the Credit Union. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no change may be made to the rights and restrictions attached to the Class B investment shares without the approval, by way of a separate special resolution, of holders of outstanding Class B investment shares in addition to any other approvals required under applicable law;
- (c) the Directors may, at any time, declare dividends on the outstanding Class B investment shares. For greater certainty, the Directors are not obligated to declare or pay dividends on the Class B investment shares in any fiscal year and there is no minimum amount of such dividends in any fiscal year;
- (d) in any fiscal year, no dividends or other distributions (other than redemptions of membership shares as contemplated under these rules) may be made on the membership shares until such time as the Credit Union has declared and paid dividends on the outstanding Class B investment in an aggregate amount equal to a percentage (which will be established by the directors at the time of issuance of the first Class B investment shares) of the aggregate amount of paid up capital on all Class B investment shares then outstanding;
- (e) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Credit Union may redeem some or all of the Class B investment shares then outstanding in their discretion. If some, but not all, of the Class B investment shares are to be redeemed, the directors may decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed are selected. Any redemption or purchase of Class B investment shares shall be at a price per Class B investment share equal to the initial purchase price of such shares plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Class B investment shares may be redeemed hereunder until such shares have been issued and outstanding for at least five (5) years; and
- (f) under no circumstances will any holder of Class B investment shares have the right to require the Credit Union to redeem or purchase any such Class B investment shares.

3.5C The Class C investment shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:

- (a) Class C investment shares will be issued at an amount equal to their par value and are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the Class C investment shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment;
- (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, a Class C investment share shall not generally carry the right to attend or vote at any meeting of members of the Credit Union. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no change may be made to the rights and restrictions attached to the Class C investment shares without the approval, by way of a separate special resolution, of holders of outstanding Class C investment shares in addition to any other approvals required under applicable law;

- (c) the Directors may, at any time, declare dividends on the outstanding Class C investment shares. For greater certainty, the Directors are not obligated to declare or pay dividends on the Class C investment shares in any fiscal year and there is no minimum amount of such dividends in any fiscal year;
- (d) in any fiscal year, no dividends or other distributions (other than redemptions of membership shares as contemplated under these rules) may be made on the membership shares until such time as the Credit Union has declared and paid dividends on the outstanding Class C investment shares in an aggregate amount equal to a percentage (which will be established by the directors at the time of issuance of the first Class C investment shares) of the aggregate amount of paid up capital on all Class C investment shares then outstanding;
- (e) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Credit Union may redeem some or all of the Class C investment shares then outstanding in their discretion. If some, but not all, of the Class C investment shares are to be redeemed, the directors may decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed are selected. Any redemption or purchase of Class C investment shares shall be at a price per Class C investment share equal to the initial purchase price of such shares plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Class C investment shares may be redeemed hereunder until such shares have been issued and outstanding for at least five (5) years; and
- (f) under no circumstances will any holder of Class C investment shares have the right to require the Credit Union to redeem or purchase any such Class C investment shares.

3.5D The Class D investment shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:

- (a) Class D investment shares will be issued at an amount equal to their par value and are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the Class D investment shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment;
- (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, a Class D investment share shall not generally carry the right to attend or vote at any meeting of members of the Credit Union. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no change may be made to the rights and restrictions attached to the Class D investment shares without the approval, by way of a separate special resolution, of holders of outstanding Class D investment shares in addition to any other approvals required under applicable law;
- (c) the Directors may, at any time, declare dividends on the outstanding Class D investment shares. For greater certainty, the Directors are not obligated to declare or pay dividends on the Class D investment shares in any fiscal year and there is no minimum amount of such dividends in any fiscal year;

- (d) in any fiscal year, no dividends or other distributions (other than redemptions of membership shares as contemplated under these rules) may be made on the membership shares until such time as the Credit Union has declared and paid dividends on the outstanding Class D investment shares in an aggregate amount equal to a percentage (which will be established by the directors at the time of issuance of the first Class D investment shares) of the aggregate amount of paid up capital on all Class D investment shares then outstanding;
- (e) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Credit Union may redeem some or all of the Class D investment shares then outstanding in their discretion. If some, but not all, of the Class D investment shares are to be redeemed, the directors may decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed are selected. Any redemption or purchase of Class D investment shares shall be at a price per Class D investment share equal to the initial purchase price of such shares plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Class D investment shares may be redeemed hereunder until such shares have been issued and outstanding for at least five (5) years; and
- (f) under no circumstances will any holder of Class D investment shares have the right to require the Credit Union to redeem or purchase any such Class D investment shares.

3.5E The Class E investment shares have attached thereto the following rights and restrictions:

- (a) Class E investment shares will be issued at an amount equal to their par value and are not transferable or assignable without the consent of the Directors, obtained in advance, and no transfer or assignment of the Class E investment shares is effective until the record of shareholdings maintained by the Credit Union is completed indicating the transfer or assignment;
- (b) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act, a Class E investment share shall not generally carry the right to attend or vote at any meeting of members of the Credit Union. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no change may be made to the rights and restrictions attached to the Class E investment shares without the approval, by way of a separate special resolution, of holders of outstanding Class E investment shares in addition to any other approvals required under applicable law;
- (c) the Directors may, at any time, declare dividends on the outstanding Class E investment shares. For greater certainty, the Directors are not obligated to declare or pay dividends on the Class E investment shares in any fiscal year and there is no minimum amount of such dividends in any fiscal year;
- (d) in any fiscal year, no dividends or other distributions (other than redemptions of membership shares as contemplated under these rules) may be made on the membership shares until such time as the Credit Union has declared and paid dividends on the outstanding Class E investment shares in an aggregate amount equal to a percentage (which will be established by the directors at the time of issuance of the first Class E investment shares) of the aggregate amount of paid up capital on all Class E investment shares then outstanding;

- (e) subject to the Credit Union Incorporation Act and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Credit Union may redeem some or all of the Class E investment shares then outstanding in their discretion. If some, but not all, of the Class E investment shares are to be redeemed, the directors may decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed are selected. Any redemption or purchase of Class E investment shares shall be at a price per Class E investment share equal to the initial purchase price of such shares plus any dividends declared but unpaid thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Class E investment shares may be redeemed hereunder until such shares have been issued and outstanding for at least five (5) years; and
 - (f) under no circumstances will any holder of Class E investment shares have the right to require the Credit Union to redeem or purchase any such Class E investment shares.
- 3.5F In the event of the dissolution, liquidation, or windup of the Credit Union, the holders of the investment shares shall be entitled, in preference to any distribution to holders of the membership shares, to receive out of funds available for distribution to shareholders, an amount equal to the initial purchase price of such investment shares together with all declared but unpaid dividends thereon, if any. Thereafter, the holders of investment shares will not be entitled to participate in any further distributions and any remaining funds will be distributed to the holders of membership shares on pro rata basis.
- 3.6 The Credit Union may require evidence as to the events described in Rule 3.5, before redeeming any shares.
- 3.7
- (1) Membership shares may be held jointly, provided that each person listed on the account is a member in accordance with Rule 2, and provided further that there are no more than four joint holders.
 - (2) All jointly held membership shares shall carry the right of survivorship unless a contrary statement, in writing, is given at the time of subscription and signed by all parties jointly holding the shares.
 - (3) The Credit Union shall not be required to redeem any membership share that is jointly held, until the death of the last joint holder.
- 3.8 Each member of the Credit Union, at the time this Rule comes into force, shall subscribe, fully pay for, and hold the following number of membership shares:
- (a) except as provided below, each member: five (5) membership shares;
 - (b) each junior member: five (5) membership shares;
 - (c) each member which is an incorporated company: five (5) membership shares;
 - (d) each member which is a legal entity, other than an incorporated company, created by or pursuant to statute: five (5) membership shares; and
 - (e) if shares are jointly held, the first member registered on the register of members: five (5) membership shares, each other member: five (5) membership shares, provided that the number of members jointly holding those membership shares shall not exceed four (4).

- 3.9 (1) A member may subscribe for, purchase, and pay for a maximum of one thousand (1,000) membership shares in the Credit Union.
- (2) The Directors may, from time to time, resolve to increase the maximum number of membership shares which a member may subscribe, purchase and pay for.
- 3.10 (1) The Directors may, from time to time, resolve that the minimum required number of membership shares to be owned by a member be increased, however, such increase must be approved by the members at the next Annual General Meeting of the Credit Union.
- (2) A determination by the Directors pursuant to this Rule may be made no more frequently than once per fiscal year of the Credit Union.
- (3) A subsequent determination by the Directors shall not be made to have effect within six (6) months of the last such determination.
- 3.11 If a member does not purchase, fully pay for and hold the required number of membership shares, the Credit Union may apply any money on deposit and interest thereon or invested in investment shares and dividends credited thereon in the name of the member to the purchase of sufficient membership shares in the name of the member so that the member shall own the number of membership shares required by the Rules.
- 3.12 If there are insufficient funds to put into effect Rule 3.11, the Directors may, by resolution, terminate the member's membership unless that membership shall terminate in accordance with the Credit Union Incorporation Act.
- 3.13 Where required by applicable legislation, the Credit Union shall issue share certificates for any of its shares, each of which shall state on its face the words "NOT GUARANTEED BY THE CREDIT UNION DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION".
- 3.14 Every share certificate issued by the Credit Union shall be in such form as the Directors approve and shall comply with the Credit Union Incorporation Act and the BCBCA.
- 3.15 Interest on deposits and dividends on shares, in the absence of an express contract or agreement, shall be paid or credited at times, intervals and in a manner determined by the Directors and the Directors may delegate the power to make such determinations.
- 3.16 The Directors may determine the forms by which a member may withdraw monies on deposit or request redemption of membership shares.
- 3.17 A statutory declaration of a Director or Officer of the Credit Union that a lien of the Credit Union has been exercised or a share forfeited and stating the date of the exercise or forfeiture shall be conclusive evidence of the fact therein stated.

4. Borrowing and Lending

4.1 Subject to the Acts, the Directors of the Credit Union may raise and borrow money for the purposes of the Credit Union upon such terms and conditions as to interest, terms of repayment and security as they determine by resolution. Subject to the Acts, the Directors shall determine the terms and conditions relating to amount, security, charges, term, repayment, and other conditions for loans made by the Credit Union, and may by resolution delegate the power to make such determination.

5. Directors and Management

5.1 Subject to Rule 5.33, the number of Directors of the Credit Union shall be eleven (11).

5.2 Except as to the first election of Directors or where an election is held to fill the unexpired portion of a term, Directors shall be elected to hold office for three (3) years not exceeding four (4) consecutive three (3) year terms.

5.3 Where any offices of Directors being filled at any election are for different lengths of terms, the term of each person shall be determined in proportion to the number of votes received, the person receiving the greatest number of votes to hold office for the longest terms, provided that if there are two or more persons having an equal number of votes, the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee shall make the determination by lot, but if there is an election by acclamation, the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee shall either determine the respective terms of the persons so elected or direct that the terms be determined by lot.

5.4 Each year Directors shall be elected to replace those with terms expiring, and those with terms expiring are eligible for re-election so long as they have not served more than four (4) consecutive terms.

5.5 A member in good standing, other than a person disqualified by Rule 5.6, shall be eligible for election as a Director.

5.6 No person who:

- (a) is a person disqualified from becoming or acting as a Director pursuant to the "Acts";
- (b) is or becomes a paid employee of the Credit Union or an affiliate of the Credit Union or the spouse, child, or stepchild, of a paid employee of the Credit Union or an affiliate of the Credit Union;
- (c) was an employee of a Credit Union or an affiliate of a Credit Union at any time in the five-year period immediately prior to the date that nominations for the office of Director under these Rules closed;
- (d) is an employee, officer or a Director of a bank, trust company, loan company, savings and loan association, deposit-taking institution, lending institution or another Credit Union (other than a Director of a central Credit Union) or a subsidiary of any of them except where that person has been requested or authorized in writing by the Directors to serve as a Director of a bank, trust company, loan company, savings and loan association, deposit-taking institution, lending institution, other Credit Union or a subsidiary of any of them;

- (e) has not been a member in good standing of the Credit Union for 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the date of notice provided for in subparagraph 5.9;
- (f) being a Director, has failed, without being excused, to attend regular meetings of the Directors for three (3) consecutive months in which meetings are held;

is eligible to hold office as a Director and, if holding office as a Director, shall vacate office forthwith.

- 5.7 Before commencing duties, a Director shall complete and submit to the Superintendent the Personal Information Return in the form prescribed by the Financial Institutions Act, disclosing the prescribed information.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

- 5.8 At least one hundred twenty (120) days before an Annual General Meeting, the Directors shall appoint a Nominating Committee of not less than three (3) members, who shall be individuals and not junior members, and who may, but need not, be Directors, provided however, that no Director whose term of office is expiring at the Annual General Meeting next following the appointment of the Committee may serve as a member of the Committee.
- 5.9 At least ninety (90) days before an Annual General Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall:
- (a) notify all members of the Credit Union that an election of Directors is to take place, specifying the number of positions which are to be filled;
 - (b) advise all members that, for purposes of being eligible to vote in the election, a person must be a member, other than a junior member, in good standing one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the date on which balloting is to commence; and
 - (c) invite the submission to it, in writing, for consideration, the names of proposed candidates, prior to the date on which nominations shall close which shall be specified in the notice, and which date shall be not less than thirty (30) days from the date of the notice.
- 5.10 No member, unless they are a member of the Nominating Committee, may nominate more than one (1) candidate in respect of an election of a Director or Directors.
- 5.11 Only a member in good standing one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the date on which balloting is to commence and who is not a junior member is eligible to cast a ballot in an election of a Director or Directors.

- 5.12 A member of a Credit Union who is not an individual may vote in an election of Directors by an individual who
- (a) is not a member;
 - and
 - (b) by written authorization deposited with the Credit Union at least ten (10) days before the election, is authorized to vote on behalf of that member.
- 5.13 Before the name of a person is placed in nomination as a candidate for election as a Director, that person shall deliver to the Nominating Committee a written declaration stating that the member is willing
- (a) to stand for election, and if elected, to serve as a Director;
 - (b) to observe the provisions of the "Acts", as applicable;
 - (c) to comply with the Credit Union's policies, procedures, and guidelines as applicable and adopted by its Board of Directors; and,
 - and
 - (d) to comply with the Rules of the Credit Union and procedures relating to the election and the conduct thereof.
- 5.14 The Nominating Committee shall examine each nomination received and determine whether the nomination complies with the Financial Institutions Act and these Rules, and shall accept each nomination of a member qualified to be a candidate whose nomination is in order and reject each nomination which is not in order or that does not comply and notify each nominee accordingly and, forthwith after the date on which nominations close:
- (a) place in nomination the names of qualified candidates at least equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in the election;
 - (b) place in nomination the names of other candidates nominated in writing by at least three (3) members in good standing of the age of majority;
 - (c) inform each candidate of the provisions of these Rules with respect to the conduct of the election and provide to each candidate a copy of the Rules of the Credit Union and any determinations of the Directors relating to elections and the conduct thereof;
 - (d) request that each candidate meet with the Nominating Committee for the purpose of an interview, within thirty (30) days of the close of nominations; and
 - (e) request that each candidate complete the Personal Information Return as described in item 5.7.

- 5.15 If the number of qualified persons nominated for the offices for which the election is to be held is less than or equal to the number of offices to be filled, the persons so nominated shall be declared by the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee to be elected by acclamation.
- 5.16 Where an election is to be held, the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee shall make available, at least thirty (30) days before the Annual General Meeting, to all members of the Credit Union entitled to vote:
- (a) a photograph, resume and policy statement if submitted by a candidate for election pursuant to Rule 5.29;
 - (b) clear and precise instructions for voting;
 - (c) advice of the date (or dates) and time(s) during which voting in the election shall take place;
 - (d) advice of the place or methods for which polling in the election shall take place;
 - (e) a list of conditions under which members will be eligible to vote in the election;
 - (f) advice of the right of each eligible member to request in writing, not less than ten (10) days prior to commencement of voting, a ballot which may be cast by mail instead of being cast as defined per Rule 5.16 (d);
and where the member requests a mail ballot,
 - (g) a ballot listing, alphabetically, the names of all nominees;
 - (h) a ballot envelope which will ensure confidentiality;
 - (i) a ballot authentication envelope with space for the name, address, branch, membership number, and signature of the member;
 - (j) an addressed envelope bearing the address of the registered office of the Credit Union;
and
 - (k) clear instructions for casting the ballot and return thereof by mail or personal delivery, specifying the day on which the ballot must be received by the Credit Union in order to be counted.
- 5.17 Voting in an election of Directors shall be by voting as determined by the Nominating Committee under Rules 5.16 five (5) business days ending not less than ten (10) days before the Annual General Meeting, or by such other means as the Directors may determine in accordance with the Acts.
- 5.18 The Directors may appoint a Returning Officer.

- 5.19 A Returning Officer appointed under Rule 5.18 may, but need not, be a member of the Credit Union but the Returning Officer shall not be an employee of the Credit Union.
- 5.20 Where a Returning Officer is appointed, they shall be appointed at least sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the voting in an election is to commence.
- 5.21 The Nominating Committee and, where applicable, the Returning Officer may engage such other resource persons as the Directors and the Nominating Committee or Returning Officer agree are required to conduct the election in a proper manner.
- 5.22 A ballot must contain votes for the number of persons to be elected and any ballot indicating another intention is void.
- 5.23 If a member who is entitled to receive a ballot does not receive a ballot or loses or destroys their ballot before it is cast, then, prior to the close of balloting, on declaration by the member that the ballot was not received or has been lost or destroyed and that the member has not cast a ballot in the election, a new ballot shall be made available to that member, together with such information as was provided to other members entitled to vote in that election.
- 5.24 The Returning Officer or, if there is no Returning Officer, the Nominating Committee shall supervise the election of Directors and:
- (a) may require a member to provide proof and particulars of membership and may require a member to provide a declaration that the member has not previously cast a ballot in the election then in progress;
 - (b) shall obtain all ballots and, after the close of balloting, shall cause a tally to be made of all ballots, such tally to be made in a manner that ensures the secrecy of the balloting;
 - (c) shall determine whether a ballot is to be accepted or rejected and such determination is final and not open to review;
- and
- (d) shall announce at the Annual General Meeting next following the completion of voting, the results of the election, including the total number of ballots cast, the number of spoiled ballots and the number of votes obtained by each candidate.
- 5.25 An alphabetic listing of the candidates and the number of votes received by each shall be posted in each office of the Credit Union as soon as the results of the ballot have been announced and shall remain posted for three (3) business days.
- 5.26 Subject to the Financial Institutions Act, a person elected as a Director shall take office at the close of the Annual General Meeting next following their election or the Annual General Meeting at which they were elected or, if the election results with respect to the election of that person are not determined by the close of the Annual General Meeting, then as soon thereafter as the results are determined provided that, for the purpose of determining that person's length of term, they shall be deemed to have taken office at the close of the Annual General Meeting.

- 5.27 The Directors may, from time to time, determine the method and manner in which candidates shall be permitted to campaign for election and candidates shall campaign in accordance with the method and manner as determined by the Directors.
- 5.28 No candidate shall interfere with the election process or seek assistance in connection with the election from any employee of the Credit Union.
- 5.29 A candidate may submit a photograph of the candidate, a resume and a statement not exceeding, in the aggregate, two hundred and fifty (250) words, setting forth the candidate's biographical information, occupation, Credit Union affiliation, experience and qualifications, which statement shall be reviewed by the Nominating Committee and may be rejected by the Committee if the Committee considers it to be lacking in good taste, defamatory, injurious to the reputation of the Credit Union, or if it exceeds two hundred and fifty (250) words.
- 5.30 Every Director shall, forthwith after their election as a Director of the Credit Union, file with the Governance & Conduct Review Committee a statement of disclosure in the form established by the Governance & Conduct Review Committee disclosing any conflicts of interest which they may have.
- 5.31 (1) Where a casual vacancy occurs among the Directors due to an elected Director (the "Former Director") ceasing to be a Director prior to the expiry of his or her term, the remaining Directors may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term that the Former Director was elected to or such shorter term as the remaining Directors may determine.
- (2) Where, for any reason, the office of a Director is not filled in an election, the remaining Directors may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy until the close of the next Annual General Meeting.
- 5.32 Where the number of Directors of a Credit Union is reduced below the number fixed by, or pursuant to, Rule 5.40 as the quorum for Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of filling the vacancies up to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Credit Union, but for no other purpose.
- 5.33 Notwithstanding Rule 5.6(d) or (e), whenever the Credit Union enters into an agreement to purchase all or substantially all of the assets of another Credit Union, in accordance with the Credit Union Incorporation Act, the Directors may appoint as additional Directors, persons who were Directors of the transferring Credit Union at the date of the transfer and designate their terms of office but the total number of Directors of the Credit Union following such appointment shall not exceed fourteen (14).
- 5.34 Where the term of office of a Director appointed pursuant to Rule 5.33 has expired or where the position becomes vacant prior to the expiration of the term of office, no vacancy shall be deemed to exist.

- 5.35 A notice of the election or appointment of a person as a Director of the Credit Union shall be filed as required by the "Acts".
